Land Base Source
The land base source is geospatial and topographic data compiled photographically to National Map Accuracy Standards for one inch equals 200 feet scale mapping using digital elevations from aerial photography dated 1988 and 2002, contour analysis from ground points captured using first-order global positioning system equipment. Topographic contours and elevations were derived using a digital terrain model from the digital elevation data on the North American Vertical Datum of 1988. Horizontal coordinates were based on the Pennsylvania State Plane Coordinate System (South Zone and North American Datum 1983). Aerial photography base is spring 2018.
